About this book

A community committee must explain why its account of a promised learning centre differs from the money and materials received. A young clerk’s insistence on a missing receipt forces the members to choose between protecting reputations and restoring public trust.

Academic purpose

This literary work focuses on reading, interpretation and discussion in Kenyan learning contexts. Attention belongs to language, form, character or voice, context and reasoned engagement with the text. Learner suitability and curriculum alignment require editorial evaluation; listing the title does not establish official set-book approval.

A short writing sample

ACT ONE A community hall before a public meeting. A table, three chairs, a locked cashbox and a stack of exercise books. A board reads LEARNING CENTRE COMMITTEE. The word OPENING has been rubbed out beneath it. MARA enters with a ledger. DANIEL follows, carrying two plastic cups. DANIEL: Tea before arithmetic. It makes the figures kinder. MARA: The figures have not complained. DANIEL: You …
