About this book

An original linked collection follows young people whose apparent beginnings arrive after disruption. The stories resist easy rescue endings and examine friendship, disability access, work, care and the freedom to define achievement.

Academic purpose

This literary work focuses on reading, interpretation and discussion in Kenyan learning contexts. Attention belongs to language, form, character or voice, context and reasoned engagement with the text. Learner suitability and curriculum alignment require editorial evaluation; listing the title does not establish official set-book approval.

A short writing sample

THE REPAIRED RADIO When the radio began speaking again, it was in the voice of a woman selling mattresses. "That is not the station," Grandfather said. "It is proof," Amani replied. "Proof of what?" "That it can speak." Grandfather leaned forward. For six weeks the little set had occupied the shelf like an offended guest. Nobody had admitted dropping it. Nobody had admitted lending it. ...
