

Bridges Beyond the Classroom

USD 10

Norisha Foundation | English | Short stories

About this book

An original story collection follows the movement from classroom knowledge to practical responsibility: an apprenticeship, a community interview, a first job and an experiment whose failure becomes useful.

Academic purpose

This literary work focuses on reading, interpretation and discussion in Kenyan learning contexts. Attention belongs to language, form, character or voice, context and reasoned engagement with the text. Learner suitability and curriculum alignment require editorial evaluation; listing the title does not establish official set-book approval.

A short writing sample

THE FIRST INVOICE Juma wrote the number three times before he allowed it to remain on the page. "Is that the price?" his aunt asked. "It is the total." "That is what I asked." He shook his head. In class the difference had seemed obvious. Here, with a customer waiting for a repaired cupboard and his aunt counting the afternoon's change, every word needed a ...

Read, share and support

For yourself; for family; for a friend; as a gift; donated copies; school or classroom packs; library copies; sponsored reader copies; organisational orders; corporate gifts; and diaspora gifting.

Purchase on hold

No orders, pre-orders or payments are accepted. This introduction does not include the complete book.

www.norisha.org/publications